Fred K. Crandall moved his household goods to his father's farm near Westerly Saturday. Mrs. Crandall and son went Sunday. Her father, Dr. Kenyon, took her in his automobile. Grange Supper, The grange supper last Thursday evening was well attended. About $3 was added to the treasury.

Mr. Taylor of Providence was in this village Wednesday looking at farms. Mrs. Annie Springer of Massachusetts spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. R. L. Knight.

Mrs. Hattie Holgate has returned after visiting several days at Wake-

Put It Up to the Hogs. A blacksmith in a small Connecticut town who occasionally goes on protracted sprees was seen figuring on the barn door and later throwing five bushels of corn on the ear into the pen where he had six hogs, and as Randolph Carpenter of New York spent Sunday with J. S. Lamond and he turned away he was heard to say: "There, blast you, if you are prudent

Don't forget that visitors receive their first impressions of your house from the way your hall looks. If you have a shabbily furnished hall in an otherwise nicely furnished house, it looks as bad as an old hat worn with a new dress. What furniture, therefore, you have in your hall should be of the best. We have massive, durable hall-trees and artistic umbrella stands in our store. We can give you satisfactory prices. Come, see our hall furniture.
